Ordering Information, terms and conditions

Construction details and Health information

- Figures and some components are made from a white metal alloy that contains some lead, consequently are not recommended for those under 15.
- Some models require assembly prior to use.
- Please wash you hands after construction or handling unpainted models.
- All models are supplied unpainted and unassembled.
- Crews are not supplied for vehicles or artillery unless specifically stated.

Returns Policy

- Damaged Goods

Goods that are miscast will, of course, be replaced free of charged. We will cover your return postage cost – but only for the use of your standard national postal service (i.e. NOT courier services) and to a maximum of the equivalent Royal Mail charge prevailing. The credit will be issued as either a credit note or a refund as you direct.

- Unwanted returns

We accept returns of complete, unassembled items if you wish to change your mind within seven days of receipt (i.e. from arrival date). You will receive a refund of the cost of these goods less £1.50 per transaction which covers our costs to banks etc which are non-recoverable. Please note such goods are returned entirely at your risk and at your expense. Force of Arms will not refund postage (either out or on return) and cannot accept any liability for their non-arrival.

Our Privacy Policy

- This means NO disclosure of your name or details to ANY third party
